

Fall workshop guide

Free, practical classes designed to help neighbors build confidence with everyday tasks.

Registration at a glance

All workshops are free. Registration closes 24 hours before each session. Accommodations are available on request.

Featured workshops

Everyday budgeting

Tuesday, October 13 | 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Build a realistic monthly plan and identify flexible expenses.

Digital essentials

Thursday, October 22 | 5:30-7:00 p.m.

Practice safer passwords, video calls, and online forms.

Community gardening

Saturday, November 7 | 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Learn how to grow herbs and vegetables in a small space.

Register and request accommodations

Register for an Open Path Learning workshop
openpath.example/register

For access needs, call 555-0142 or email access@openpath.example at least five days before the session.

What to expect

Before your workshop

You will receive a confirmation email with the room or online meeting details. Bring only the materials listed in that message.

Accessibility commitments

- Step-free entrances and accessible restrooms at in-person sites
- Live captions for online sessions
- Digital handouts that support text resizing and screen readers
- Fragrance-reduced seating available on request

Need another format?

Request this guide in large print, plain text, or another accessible format: access@openpath.example | 555-0142

About Open Path Learning

Open Path Learning is a fictional nonprofit created for this accessibility portfolio. No real participant data is included.